Linkage With General Colleges

The college totally believes in collaborative teaching learning environment wherein the faculty of the college constantly visits and interacts with teachers with various colleges. The teaching learning strategies are scrutinized and discussed as to develop age-appropriate teaching patterns for maximum course learning outcomes. The general student behavior and their expectation from teachers are also studied during the visit. The student behavior also includes the learning styles of students and how as senior teacher, we can cater those learning styles without any hiccups in the learning. Celebration of important days like Independence Day, Teachers' Day, and Republic Day is done by giving lectures by exchanging of faculty. Every effort is made to avail maximum support from other colleges for creating ample chances of faculty growth.
